MEN STRIKE AGAIN

Schoenville Steel Workers Become Tired of Imported Bosses.

DEPUTIES PROTECT VILLAGE

Declare That Company Officials Have Broken Faith With Them—No Fear of Violence—4,000 Leave the Shops.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Sept. 15.—The car workers 'strike at the plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company, in Schoenville, which was thought settled on Wednesday of last week, after costing nine lives and heavy financial loss, began anew today when between 3,000 and 4,000 employes of the car works walked from their work and quietly dispersed to their homes.

The workmen now allege that the car company officials have broken faith with them regarding the discharging of imported bosses brought here during the recent eight weeks' labor dispute. Late today it was announced by the car plant officials that they would probably discharge what few imported workmen are yet in the plant in a second effort to resume business and keep their plant running.

Tonight there are 50 deputy sheriffs on guard at the car plant. Little or no trouble is anticipated, however, and it is believed that by tomorrow noon the car works will again be in full operation.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The news of the renewal of the strike of the Pressed Steel Car Company workmen and the shutting down of that plant caused great surprise here.

The mediation board, which consists of Dr. Charles P. Neill, the Commissioner of Labor and Judge Martin A. Knapp, the chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, probably will be called upon to exercise its efforts once more in the direction of adjusting the situation at McKees Rocks.

The mediation board and the Department of Justice would be the only two departments of the government likely to be drawn into the matter. Commissioner Neill reurned here only last week from the zone of the strike and then regarded the strike as settled. He, however, left several Federal agents in the vicinity to keep in touch with the conditions and developments.

The Department of Justice will not have to deal with the situation unless some Federal law is violated by the strikers or by the other side of the big industrial contest.

MURDERED HIS GIRL BRIDE.

Virginian Poisoned His Seventeen-Year-Old Wife.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 15.—J. E. Sayre, who was arrested yesterday in Harrisville, W. Va., charged with the murder of his 17-year-old bride of two weeks by the administration of poison, was brought here today and arraigned before a justice of the peace. His hearing was set for Friday, and he was remanded to jail without bond.

Sayre will be defended by State Senator R. F. Kidd, a noted West Virginia criminal lawyer. Throughout today Sayre acted as if bereft of reason. In his cell he continually called the name of his wife and was forcibly restrained from violence by jail guards.

TAFT IS OFF

Boarded His Car and Started From Boston Yesterday Morning.

THROUGH WEST AND SOUTH

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 15.—After traversing today the two great States of Massachusetts and New York, President Taft tonight is skirting the southern shores of Lake Erie on his way to Chicago where he will arrive at 11:30 A. M. tomorrow to make his first important stop on a 1,300-mile tour of the West and South.

Wherever the train stopped today on its run from Boston there were large crowds at the railway stations and the President was greeted with enthusiastic cheering. The day was typical of many that are to come, and the President was prevailed upon to make a number of five-minute speeches from the rear platform of his car at points not included in the itinerary. In Massachusetts, Mr. Taft spoke at Worcester, Springfield and Pittsfield. Entering New York State, he was greeted at Albany by Governor Charles E. Hughes and both made little talks to the depot throng, which cheered the State and Federal executives with equal enthusiasm. President Taft was in rare good humor today. He seemed thoroughly happy that the journey toward which he has been looking for several months had at last begun. He thanked those who came to greet him in the different cities and said he believed that the long and arduous trip would bring him into closer touch with the people than any other plan which could be devised. Mr. Taft said that the more he could see of the country and the people during his term of office, the better President he would make.

Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes are pronounced admirers of each other and their meetings always are characterized by many exchanges of graceful and earnest compliments. Today President Taft told of the splendid work Governor Hughes had done for him and the Governor replied that the President could never call upon him in vain.

Starting from Boston a little after 10 o'clock this morning, the President headed straight for the West. It was his fifty-second birthday and he received many congratulations and messages of good will. At Pittsfield some enthusiastic admirers fairly filled the President's car with flowers. The throng which lined the way from the hotel to the station in Boston was but a forerunner of those encountered along the way. Even at places where the President's train did not stop there were many to wave him a greeting.

The President set a precedent today for the entire trip by electing to run on a slow schedule. The New York Central lines surrounded the train with every precaution for its safety. There always were three men on the engine and prominent representatives of the traffic department were aboard from the start.

Vice President Sherman made a vain effort to see the President at Utica, Mr. Sherman's home city. It was not known that the Vice President was at home or would be at the station. The train stopped about thirty seconds for orders. Mr. Sherman clambered aboard the rear end and was making his way toward the President's room when the conductor, not knowing the Vice President was aboard, gave the signal to go ahead. Mr. Sherman shouted to one of the attaches that he was not able to go on to Syracuse and hopped off. He left behind, however, a five-pound box of candy as a birthday present.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—A strenuous inaugural of President Taft's long speech making trip has been arranged here for tomorrow. From the moment when he steps from the train at 11:15 A. M., into the arms of a numerous reception committee, until midnight when he retires to his private car, every minute will be turned to account.

For an hour and a half an automobile will carry him slowly through a gauntlet of 150,000 public and parochial school pupils lining miles of boulevards and carrying small American flags.

The review of the pupils will terminate at the Congress hotel where the President will make an informal address to his hosts, the Commercial Club.

During the afternoon the President will witness a baseball game between the New York and Chicago clubs of the National League, weather permitting. He will be the guest of the Hamilton Club at an informal dinner, after which he will address a mass meeting at Orchestra Hall.

At 11 P. M., he will attend the ball of the American Bankers' Association, and at midnight will be escorted to his train, which two hours later will leave for Milwaukee.

Leaving On 13,000-Mile Journey

After being a guest of the united commercial bodies of that city and speaking at a banquet in his honor by the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night, in his private car, President Taft yesterday morning, a little after 10 o'clock, left Boston for his wide swing around the United States, covering, to be exact, 12,759 miles. Mr. Taft starts from Boston on his 52nd birthday, will visit 46 cities, traverse 25 States and be away 57 days, winding up his "swing around the circle" with visits to Wilmington, N. C., and Richmond, Va., November 9th and 10th. On this tour every modern means of transportation except the airship will be employed. Of the total itinerary, 1,165 miles will be made on a steamboat down the Mississippi river. This distance falls about 1,000 miles short of President Roosevelt's long tour to the Pacific coast, but the addition of the three side trips Mr. Taft will make soon after his return to Washington will bring the total of the journey far above that of his predecessors. The journey will be as long as the cruise of the battleship fleet from Hampton Roads through the Straits of Magellan to San Francisco Bay. The car which Mr. Taft boarded yesterday will be a roving White House until his return, though during his absence the President will be in constant touch with Washington by means of special telegraph wires placed at his disposal. His private car will be attached a greater part of the time to regular trains but running "special" every now and then to fill engagements at the smaller towns along the route and in the more remote sections where trains are few and far between.

PEARY'S MAN TELLS OF POLE

Colored Lieutenant Says They Hoisted Stars and Stripes Twice—Solid Sea of Ice at Pole. Two Days at Goal.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Battle Harbor, Labrador, Sept. 15. (by Wireless telegraph via Cape Bay, N. F.)—"We hoisted the Stars and Stripes twice at the North Pole" said Matthew Henson, Commander Robert E. Peary's colored lieutenant, and the only other civilized man, according to Peary, who ever reached the Pole.

Henson tonight gave to the Associated Press an account of the one night and two days he and Commander Peary and four Eskimos camped at 90 degrees north latitude. Henson personally assisted in raising the American flag and he led the Eskimos in the cheers, and an extra cheer for Old Glory in the Eskimo tongue.

"Having spent 18 years with Commander Peary, and a considerable portion of that time in the Arctic," said Henson, "I have acquired a knowledge of dialect of the northern Greenland Eskimos, who probably are superior to any other. As is commonly known to travelers in the far North, the Eskimos entertain a strange prejudice toward any tongue but one, and it is therefore necessary for successful dealings with them to study their unwritten language.

"We arrived at the Pole just before noon, April 6th, the party consisting of the commander, myself, four Eskimos and 36 dogs, divided into two detachments equal in number and headed respectively by Commander Peary and myself. We had left the last supporting party at 87 degrees 53 minutes, where we separated from Capt. Bartlett, who was photographed by the commander. Capt. Bartlett regretted that he did not have a British flag to erect on the ice at this spot, so that the photograph might show this as the farthest North to which the banner of Britain had been advanced.

"I kept a personal diary during this historic dash across the field. Our first task on reaching the pole was to build two igloos, as the weather was hazy and prevented taking accurate observations to confirm the distance traveled from Cape Columbia. Having completed the snow houses, we had dinner, which included tea made on our alcohol stove, and then retired to rest. Sleeping one night at the North Pole."

Henson, who reached the farthest north with Peary three years ago, said that conditions were about the same at the Pole as elsewhere in the Arctic circle. All was a solid sea of ice with a two foot lead of open water two miles from the Pole.

A South Pole Expedition.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 15.—The mail boat from Labrador, which arrived at St. Louis tonight reports that Commander Peary and Captain Bartlett have also settled on an expedition to the South Pole. They have on board the Roosevelt furs, sledges and other equipment necessary for such an expedition.

GOV. JOHNSON SERIOUSLY ILL

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 15.—Dr. C. F. McNevin, house physician at St. Mary's hospital at 9:20 o'clock this P. M. issued the following bulletin on Governor Johnson's condition:

"Governor Johnson's condition is very bad. Pulse irregular and fast. Temperature sub-normal."

Governor Johnson, was operated on in St. Mary's hospital here today by Dr. William J. Mayo, assisted by Dr. Charles Mayo, for a deep seated intestinal abscess. It was a serious operation and Governor Johnson's condition is regarded tonight as grave, though the surgeons hope for the patient's recovery. Governor Johnson was upon the operating tables for two hours and thirty minutes. As soon as he had recovered from the effects of the anesthetics, his first words were for Mrs. Johnson, who came at once to his bedside. Later in the day a bulletin was issued which said:

"The doctors found a small deep seated abscess connected with the intestines. It was a difficult, serious and prolonged operation. Governor Johnson stood it well and rallied. The chances are for his recovery, although he will not be out of danger for five days. He is suffering great pain."

A number of physicians witnessed the operation. Dr. H. H. Witherstein, of this city also a State Senator, is known to have given the Governor's private secretary, Frank A. Day, a gloomy view of the case, saying that it was "one of the most terrible operations of the kind he ever witnessed."

PRISON IN FEARFUL CONDITION.

Federal Prisoners Will be Removed From Western Penitentiary.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Conditions at the Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania, at Allepheny, have been found so distressing and intolerable as to require immediate removal of all Federal prisoners whose transfer is practicable, and to demand the most serious consideration of the proper authorities. This is disclosed in the report of C. H. McGlasson, of the Department of Prisons and Prisoners to the Attorney General.

At the direction of the Attorney General, Wade Ellis, acting head of the Department of Justice, made known today the results of the investigation which Mr. McGlasson conducted, following the reports published by the newspapers several weeks ago criticising the conditions at the penitentiary.

HEAD-ON COLLISION

Eight Men Killed and Several Bodies Were Burned.

15 PASSENGERS INJURED

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 15.—As the result of a head-on collision between passenger train No. 4 and fast freight No. 51 on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway, one mile west of Pegram station, Tenn., today, eight train men were killed and 15 passengers injured, two fatally, perhaps, and a number of others reported more or less hurt. No passengers were killed. The cars caught fire and several of the victims were cremated.

The dead are William Mogan, Nashville, traveling engineer, body burned; Joseph Gower, Nashville, engineer on passenger train, body burned; Jesse Tarkington, engineer on freight, body burned; Walter Roach, messenger, body burned; Samuel Whited, fireman, body burned; S. B. Welp, head brakeman; W. S. Stalcup, mail clerk, Martin, Tenn.; L. F. Bailey, mail clerk, Martin, Tenn., body burned; Ellis Martin, conductor on the freight, was badly injured; Bob Hailey, fireman, Nashville, seriously injured.

Among the slightly injured were Capt. T. Jobe, Burton, N. C.; William Lunsford and W. L. Thomasson, of Peachtree, N. C.; R. W. Boyd, of Almond, N. C.; Mrs. Temple Lunsford, Mrs. A. C. Thomasson and May Thomasson, of Murphy, N. C.

The collision occurred about 8 o'clock this morning. The wreckage at once caught fire. The baggage, mail, express and smoking cars of the passenger train and several of the freight cars were burned. But one bag of mail was saved. Through the almost superhuman strength exerted by the passengers the three day coaches and the Pullman were pushed back from the fire and the equipment saved.

It is the general impression among passengers and trainmen that the fault was with the passenger crew, as orders to meet at Pegram had been issued and the wreck occurred west of that station. Both engines were completely wrecked. The wreck was caused by the overlooking of orders.

William Mogan, the traveling engineer who was killed, was for years the private engineer of the late President J. W. Thomas, of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway, and had just returned from the meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Denver.

THE RATE INQUIRY

Hearing Before Corporation Commission Began in Raleigh Yesterday.

OPINIONS BY SUPREME COURT

Thirteen Appeals Disposed of—Duplin Land Controversy—Capitals Highway Route—Charters Granted Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 15.—There began this morning before the Corporation Commission the hearing as to discriminations against North Carolina shipping interests as compared with Virginia and South Carolina in the matter of freight rates from ports of the respective States to points within the State inland.

The indications are that two days or longer will be required to complete the examination of the traffic managers of the several railroad companies. The first witness was Traffic Manager L. Green, of the Southern Railway. Other traffic managers here to testify are C. R. Capps, Seaboard Air Line; H. C. Hodges, Norfolk & Southern, and R. A. Brand, Atlantic Coast Line. The examinations are being conducted by H. A. Foushee, of Durham, representing the Durham Board of Trade, and A. B. Justice, of Charlotte, representing the North Carolina Merchants' Association. A number of the officers of the Merchants' Association, including President E. E. Broughton and Secretary E. L. Harris, are attending the hearing.

The traffic managers filed schedules of freight rates in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia ports inland to points within the respective States and comparisons of these rates, their contention being that these statements show not only no discrimination against North Carolina but that North Carolina has in some instances lower rates. Examination developed the fact that no two roads in Virginia have the same rate for equal distances. Traffic Manager Capps, of the Seaboard Air Line, during his examination, made the statement that the reason freight traffic went to Norfolk for instance, rather than to Wilmington from Carolina points, is because Wilmington lacks shipping facilities; that whereas, Wilmington has two steamers each week for New York, Norfolk has something like two each day. To illustrate this he said, if he had a shipment of cotton cloth from the Rockingham Mills billed for New York, he would have to send via Norfolk on this account, although the Seaboard would receive a larger proportion of the freight charges if it went via Wilmington. Mr. Brand, of the Atlantic Coast Line, insisted that his road does not discriminate against North Carolina points in any manner. During the examination the old troubles of Virginia gateway rates as involved in Inter-State rates came in for general discussion and was used considerably as the basis for examination by Messrs. Foushee and Justice. This especially figured during the examination of Mr. Green. There is a first-class rate of 3.9 cents per ton per mile for the 367 miles from Norfolk to Charlotte, and 6.6 cents per ton per mile from Wilmington to Charlotte. Using this as a basis the examination delved into intricacies of participation in rates by connecting railroads and construction of network of rates that will have the least discriminatory effect in its application in the freight zones of the country. Getting down to practical operations, Mr. Foushee questioned the witnesses as to increased revenue the railroads would have from increased traffic caused by lower rates. Mr. Green denied that there would be any increase in consumption greater than the gradual increase in population. Slightly lower rates, he said, would not cause the people to eat more sugar, wear more clothes or anything of that kind. The Corporation Commission announced that the schedules of rates and records of the hearing would be considered at the convenience of the Commission and the ruling will be made later.

Supreme Court Opinions.

Thirteen appeals were disposed of today by the Supreme Court with opinions and otherwise, this being the second delivery day of the term. The list follows: State vs. Wynne, Washington, reversed; Phelps vs. Davenport, Washington, new trial; Lumber Company vs. Southern Railway, Gates, affirmed; Barden vs. Hornthall, Washington, affirmed; Morrisett vs. Cotton Mills, Pasquotank, affirmed; Simmons vs. Respass, Beaufort, affirmed; Baker vs. Brown, Bertie, affirmed; Gaskins vs. Railroad, Beaufort, action dismissed; White vs. Lipsitz, Bertie, affirmed; Engine Company vs. Paschall, Warren, affirmed; Forehand vs. Railroad, Camden, per curiam, affirmed; Steamboat Company vs. Farmers & Merchants' Line, Currituck, dismissed under Rule 17; Smith, Courtney Company vs. Brown, Beaufort, dismissed under Rule 17.

DECLARE THE ROW OFF

A controversy seems to have sprung up between some of our afternoon and morning contemporaries in North Carolina as to which "rag" reaches the public with the first news. Of course the afternoon paper contends that it furnishes the stuff hot, crisp and jerky, while the morning purveyors of a wide range of intelligence assert that it is they which serve the news quicker and in better shape.

It is not worth while to go into details with the arguments which the contending contemporaries present, but because the discovery of the North Pole and the death of Mr. E. H. Harriman were first announced very briefly in the evening papers, they took advantage of it to boost the afternoon paper. Our esteemed and very excellent contemporary, the Charlotte News, a live afternoon paper well deserving the wide popularity of which it can truthfully boast, sums up the afternoon claims as follows:

"The afternoon paper usually tells the news; the morning paper tells how it happened. The public is rapidly coming to look to the afternoon paper for the live news; preferring freshness to detail."

The Star has not butted in to exploit the claims of the morning newspapers, for they speak for themselves, but to observe that there is nothing to dispute about. There is a demand for both morning and afternoon papers in communities that can afford them and there is a distinct field for both, one differing from the other as the day from the night.

We are only acting as umpire in this controversy, and the ruling of the court is that there is nothing in the claim of either morning or afternoon paper that it is the first to give the news. The simple fact is that some important news which comes to the surface in time finds its way into the afternoon papers. All that it gets "left" on, and all that happens after the afternoon paper has gone to press, gets into the morning paper, which, as a matter of course, gives fuller particulars of all that the afternoon paper contains and besides dishes up a whole lot of breakfast reading that happened after the afternoon paper had been scanned. You see, the public scans the afternoon paper and peruses the morning paper.

We are not taking sides in this controversy. We have just waded in to say that the afternoon paper only beats the morning paper on news that happens before it goes to press, while, and also whereas, the morning paper scoops the afternoon paper on all news that happens after the afternoon paper becomes a back number. They both serve their purposes and have their advantages, each, as far as it can, supplying the needs of the public for information of the world's events, and offering the community a medium for advertising that some may desire to have read that afternoon or night but which all certainly will insert in the morning paper where it can be read in the quiet morning hour, before the cares of business are entered upon, or which can he read during the day from morning till night.

However, as we herein before asseverated, we are not in this controversy. As umpire and as a friend of the afternoon papers, we merely say that all who want to get some of the news before they go to sleep and who wish their advertisements read after business closes or after the chickens have gone to roost and the cricket begins its lonesomelike and mournful song—why, er the evening paper is the very thing wanted.

As The Star is a morning paper, it would be utterly unbecoming in us to even hint that people should read the news that happened in the afternoon and also the news that happened after the afternoon. It would also be out of place, as a mere umpire, to flaunt it in the face of the intelligent and discriminating advertiser that advertisements in a morning paper like The Star stand chances all day long of being read by hosts of people who are up and out for business.

The afternoon and morning papers up the State started this controversy among themselves and brought on their troubles. They should call a truce, because the afternoon paper and the morning paper both have their proper spheres, distinctive orbits, and proper fields as news purveyors, as boosters of industry and agriculture, and as advertising medums. A discriminating public will reward their merits without any argument on the side. Declare the row off.

HOLD YOUR COTTON AND TOBACCO.

The movement among the cotton and tobacco growers to hold back their crops, in order to get fair prices for these products, does not seem to be as vigorous as formerly. This year, however, the conditions make the chances of winning almost certain for the growers, because the crop is short and the demand for consumption is greater.

This can be said of cotton especially, but the question is whether the cotton growers will rush their cotton to market as they generally do in great volume, thus oversupplying immediate demand and causing prices to go down. October is the critical time with the cotton grower, for he has to pay up debts for supplies and have money for Fall purchases. If some method were devised to regulate rushing practically the entire crop of cotton to market in about three or four months, the prices could be kept on a more stable and equitable basis. It would be better for the farmer, the buyer and the manufacturer.

Upon the question of marketing this year's crop of cotton and tobacco in North Carolina, Dr. H. Q. Alexander, president of the State Farmers' Union, sends out a circular in which, among other things, he says to the farmers:

"That this will be the smallest crop of cotton in several years is already conceded by the government, the spinners, the speculators and all well posted farmers. The world has less than three-fourths of a million bales on hand, from last year's crop. Consumption of cotton is increasing every year. Therefore, it is the opinion of many well informed men, with whom I have talked, that cotton will, within a few months, reach as high a point as it did under the Sully boom. Every farmer can arrange to hold at least a part of his crop. Many can hold all of their crop for several months. Let me urge you to make use of the warehouse certificate and market your crop slowly as demanded. This is the only sensible, business-like way of marketing.

"I would say to the tobacco farmers that the recent dry weather has more than offset the increase in acreage, and there will not be a big crop of tobacco. Get together and stand as one man; presenting a sold array of strong, determined men against the dollars of the American tobacco trust. Your cause is a righteous one, and "thrice armed is he who has his quarrel just." A convention of tobacco farmers will be called in Danville, Va., about the last of September. Look out for the date and be sure to attend.

"A word to the local unions. Have you received the cotton seed circular sent out by the State union? If you have not, then write to SecretaryE. C. Faires, King's Mountain, and he will send you one. Then call your members together and see how many of them will pledge themselves to carry out the propositions contained in that circular. Do this at once."

PROSPERITY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wadesboro Ansonian tells us that $1,000,000 will be spent in that county in the next twelve months to pay laborers at work on the Southbound Railroad and in the construction of the hydro-electric plant at Blewett Falls, on the Yadkin river.

In many other counties there is railroad building, double-tracking, erection of cotton mills, construction of macadam roads, and the improvement of streets and the installation of waterworks and other municipal improvements in numerous cities and towns. Probably there was never a time in the history of the State when there was more contract or public work in progress, and from one end of the State to the other record building operations are noted by the Star's exchanges.

It is almost a daily announcement that some county or town has voted bonds for good roads, paved streets, waterworks, or other improvements. In Washington, N. C., on Tuesday a special election was held for the purpose of voting $25,000 in bonds for street improvements. The bond proposition carried and thus the growing city of Washington indicates that it is to be counted among North Carolina's progressive cities.

Goldsboro has let a contract for extensive street improvements, and the town of Hickory will soon improve its streets, bonds for that purpose having recently sold at a premium in Cincinnati.

Fayetteville has already spent many thousands of dollars in municipal improvements, and Wilmington has a pile of money to spend for waterworks, sewerage and improvements generally.

This is the story from all over North Carolina, and the instances noted are only a given few to indicate how money is to be turned loose all over the State. It will give employment to the people and will make for good times and prosperity. Hurry up with the work.

If Raleigh has anything worth having she'd better not let Greensboro see it.

Commander Peary raises a howl like a North Carolina Republican when he sees a near-Democrat mouthing a piece of political pie.

The president of the German Reichtag is named Count Udo Graf Zu Stolberg Wernigerode. Sounds like an empty wagon going across a county that hasn't got any good roads.

"Red Buck" will please come across with that book, and in it he should tell us all about that challenge to a corn-stalk duel which he spurned as totally unworthy of a cavalier.

Dr. Cook knows how to keep his shirt on. The display of good sense on the part of the doctor has caused people to doubt the declaration that Peary has "nailed" him.

Judge Lovett, successor to the late E. H. Harriman, is a Texan but he has been in New York long enough to lay aside his gun. However, he may hunt up his shooting iron if he sees some of his alleged likenesses in the newspapers.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, in one of its learned editorials says: "Nobody could live on Mars without vapor." That may be disputed, but we assert, without fear of being denounced as a prevaricator, that some people can't live on Earth without vaporing.

People do not take much stock in those who "chew the rag." They listen and read and generally decide against the fellow who throws the first mud. People believe that both Cook and Peary reached the North Pole, but they are generally agreed that Peary has put his foot in it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A local news item in The Wilmington Star indicates that North Carolina's chief seaport will do a larger cotton export business this year than ever before. It is to the effect that Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, Wilmington's cotton exporters, will put both their compresses in operation this year for the first time since 1906. Since that year one compress has been found of sufficient capacity to do all the work, but now the two are needed, so great is the rush of cotton. This speaks well for the port of Wilmington and indicates the extent to which its export business has grown.—Charlotte Observer.

—It is probable that an extra two thousand laborers will be employed in Anson county during the coming year and that nearly one million dollars will be required to meet the pay rolls. Blewett Falls and the Southbound are responsible for this and it will mean much for the people of the county. Farm labor will be demoralized for a time, but such is the result of the march of progress and, after all, will teach our people to go in for more intensive farming, the kind that pays the biggest dividends. All business men agree that this big pay roll will help them, then think of bringing one enterprise to the town or county that will expend that amount for labor and be a permanent fixture! It can be done, and along with it will come many others of a like nature. With our unsurpassed railway facilities, Anson county and Wadesboro in particular will offer the best possible advantages to almost all kinds of manufacturing plants. Keep pushing and something will happen yet.—Wadesboro Ansonian.

—Through the courtesy of Mr. Henry C. Brown, clerk of the Corporation Commission. The Chronicle has received a copy of the 1909 railroad map of North Carolina. It shows a considerable increase of green, blue, red orange and purple lines over the State, the colors representing the different railroad lines. The Southern has a mileage of 1,332 in the State; the Atalantic Coast Line 947; the Seaboard Air Line 617; the Norfolk and Southern 468, and the miscellaneous roads, not including the lumber roads, 986. The new map accurately outlines the route of the Southbound from Winston-Salem to Wadesboro, and the proposed extension of the Piedmont from Denton in Davidson county, to Rockingham. This is the road already in operation between Thomasville and Denton. The Statesville Air Line is not on the map, but we have placed it on our copy. The new route from Charlotte to Johnson City and thence to Cranberry and Montezuma to Linville is shown to advantage. The latter roads stops at Pineola and the distance across to Edgemont, the terminus of the Carolina and North Western, looks but a short span, but it is noticed that at Edgemont the latter road turns back like a caterpillar that has been trodden upon, as if trying to avoid meeting the Pineola line. The proposed road from Lenoir to Boone, according to the dotted line, would leave the backbone of the mountain between Blowing Rock town and the road. The map is crisscrossed with dotted lines indicating much coming activity in railroad building in this State.—Charlotte Chronicle.

All the great navies of the world will be abundantly represented, which with other craft, including replicas of the historic "Halfmoon" and "Clermont," will go to make up a water parade of a thousand or more vessels and on the land there will be gorgeous spectacles in floats, parades, reviews, exhibitions, decorations and a thousand and one object lessons in our 300 years' progress.

Every day will be a picture of a veritable fairyland and millions of electric lights of all colors and sizes will fairly turn night into day.

THE CRUSH OF WORLDS.

What Would Happen if a Dead Sun Invaded Our Solar System.

It is possible, though it is not proved, that stars may sometimes approach one another and even "leap madly from their spheres." "What would happen were an unknown star or a dead sun to invade our solar system?" asks a writer in the London Illustrated News, who answers his query in two ways. In the first place, the star might rush straight into the sun and by the heat of the collision reduce the sun and all its planets to a nebulous mass without form or structure. But it is more mathematically probable that just as comets approach, circle and recede from the sun, so the starry invader of our system would approach our system and recede from it, having altered it beyond recognition.

But what would be its effect upon our sun? The sun as we know it today is explosively elastic. Great tongues of flame which would consume a little planet like ours at a mouthful continually leap from it with speeds of several hundred miles a second. This enormous explosive force is restrained only by the greater force of the sun's gravity. But if an approaching star as great as the sun came within striking distance of it then along the line joining the two bodies, each would begin to pull the other, as today the moon pulls up the earth's oceans.

The mighty pull of the invading star would neutralize the sun's gravity in one direction, and the sun would, in a sense, explode. Out from our ancestral sun and from opposite sides of it would fly two great lengthening arms of matter, reaching far beyond the farthest planet. As the star passed, its moving mass would give a further twist to the sun and would pull the arms of matter into the shape of a great double spiral. Form and motion would thus be imparted to the nebula thus created, and from the solar system thus extinguished in catastrophe a new sun, with planets condensing from the lumps and inequalities in the projecting arms, would arise.

CAPE HATTERAS.

The Shifting Sands and Point of This Isolated Place.

There are few names more widely known in the United States or localities about which a greater ignorance prevails than Cape Hatteras. Situated as it is at the angle where the long strip of sand beach from Cape Henry south turns at a right angle to the westward, with the widest part of Pamlico sound between it and the mainland and with the beach both west and north cut into several islands by inlets from sound to ocean, its position is isolated. No means of transportation exist along the beach, and with the nearest railway station from which a regular transportation route is operated nearly a hundred miles away it is an easier place to talk about than to visit.

Like all sand promontories, the point of the cape is always moving. An old wreck imbedded deep in the sand and showing only the stumps of her masts and bowsprit and the rusty skeletons of what were once her chain plates and dead eyes is now a quarter of a mile or more inland. Twenty years ago she is said to have lain in the water, where she struck or drifted ashore, the land now outside of her having been built up since by the action of the wind and the waves.

Two features connected with the sailing of the fishing skiffs used hereabouts are new to me. One is that of using a member of the crew as shifting ballast. A plank is run out over the side, the inner end caught under the lee washboards, while on the outer end, with legs dangling over the water, sits the man acting as ballast, and this not in racing, mind you, but in every day sailing. The other is the practice of "nodding," as I heard it called. In moderate weather, when the skiff is only lightly gliding along, one man will stand up alongside the centerboard on the weather side and, facing outward, will steadily rock sidewise from one foot to the other with faster. And perhaps it does.—Charlotte Observer.

The Red Sea.

In the Red sea reefs of bright pink coral are clearly to be seen. Much of the rocky bed of this sea is the work of the coral insect. But probably the true reason for the name of the Red sea is because along its eastern shore lies ancient Edom. This word signifies "red." It was given to the region not from the color of its sandstone hills, but from its people. These are the descendants of him who came in faint and weary from hunting and said to his brother, "Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage, for I am faint;" therefore was his name called Edom.

Only a Man.

"Oh, mother," she cried, "don't scold me for being late to tea, for I've had such a disappointment! A horse fell down, and they said that they were going to send for a horse doctor, so of course I had to stay. And after I'd waited and waited he came, and, oh, mother, what do you think? It wasn't a horse doctor at all. It was only a man!"—Everybody's Magazine.

A Concise Explanation.

"How does that man always manage to appear as the leader of you people?"

"I suppose," answered Farmer Corntossel, "that it's simply because he's smart enough to get ahead of us."—Washington Star.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

Something more than an ordinary tonic is required to restore health to a weakened, run-down system; the medicine must possess blood-purifying properties as well, because the weakness and impurity of the circulation is responsible for the poor physical condition. The blood does not contain the necessary quantity of rich, red corpuscles, and is therefore a weak, watery stream which cannot afford sufficient nourishment to sustain the system in ordinary health. A poorly nourished body cannot resist disease, and this explains why so many persons are attacked by a spell of sickness when the use of a good tonic would have prevented the trouble. In S. S. S. will be found both blood-cleansing and tonic qualities combined. It builds up weak constitutions by removing all impurities and germs from the blood, thus supplying a certain means for restoring strength and invigorating the system. The healthful, vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed make it splendidly fitted to the needs of those systems which are delicate from any cause. It is Nature's Perfect Tonic, free from all harmful minerals, a safe and pleasant acting medicine for persons of every age. S. S. S. rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling so common at this season, improves the appetite and digestion, tones up the stomach, acts with pleasing effects on the nervous system, and reinvigorates every portion of the body. Foundation for the Second Big Seaboard Warehouse About Completed.

The frame work on the second big warehouse being erected by the Seaboard Air Line, on the wharf, has been commenced and the finishing touches are being placed on the first large storage room, which has been under construction for some time.

The building of the foundation for the second warehouse, in which was required several thousand piling, has been done by the Diamond Steamboat & Wrecking Co., and will be entirely completed within a short time. The work is progressing finely and the placing of the roof on the first building is now under way.

For several days the capping of the piling has been in progress on the second storage and other preliminary work preparatory to completing the foundation and erecting the weatherboarding has been done.

Besides the work referred to the dredging is also being carried on rapidly. The first slip, which will be between the two warehouses, has already been dredged and a second is being worked between the Coast Line and Seaboard buildings. This latter slip will be some 30 feet deep and will enable large vessels to receive and unload cargoes there.

POLITICS IN THE THIRD.

Candidates Galore for Congressional Honors, So It is Said.

According to a gentleman who has recently returned from a few days' visit in the upper counties of the Wilmington & Weldon, the sixth is not going to be the only district in which the Congressional fur will fly in the pending campaign. According to this gentleman there is to be no paucity of candidates in the third, which has come to be known as "Charley Thomas' district." The most interesting rumor from that neck-o'-the-woods just at present is that Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, of Onslow, may be induced to enter the lists and, if he does, it is predicted that there will be lively doings before, during and after the convention. It is also said that Onslow has another "favorite son" in the person of Representative Elijah Koonce, of Jacksonville, who is waging no gum-shoe campaign; in fact, it is said that he is making such a race that he has all the road to himself. Then there are Mr. Thomas, the present incumbent; Col. Jos. E. Robinson, of Wayne; Dr. J. M. Faison, of Duplin; Col. Geo. E. Hood, of Wayne; Henry A. Grady, of Sampson, and H. McD. Williams, of Duplin, all of whom have been "mentioned", if they are not avowed candidates.

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Miss Annie Sherman Becomes the Bride of Mr. E. W. Everett.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. W. D. Blizzard, 706 South Second street, at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Miss Annie Sherman, daughter of Mr. T. J. Sherman, became the bride of Mr. E. W. Everett, of Waycross, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist church, in the presence of a number of friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Everett left on the 7 o'clock train last evening for Warsaw, the old home of the groom, where they will spend about a week with relatives and friends before going to Waycross, where they will reside. Mr. Everett is in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line at Waycross and has a wide circle of friends. His bride is an attractive young lady and is popular with many friends.

NO PENDER COURT THIS WEEK.

Judge Oliver H. Allen Recovering From Attack of Typhoid Fever.

The two weeks term of Pender Superior Court appointed to convene at Burgaw on Monday is not being held owing to the inability of the bar there to secure a supply judge in place of Judge Oliver H. Allen, who has been quite sick at his home in Kinston.

A friend of Judge Allen in this city learns that he is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever and that while he is now convalescent it may be a week or ten days before he will be able to resume his judicial duties. Judge Allen spoke of going to Burgaw for the second week of Pender court, but has been advised to await entire recovery from his recent attack before attempting to hold court again. Many friends of Judge Allen in this city will be rejoiced to know of his convalescence.

THE BELLWILL COTTON MILLS

Will Issue Bonds to Amount of $75,000 Secured by Atlantic Trust and Banking Company—Begins Operations Soon.

A deed of trust was filed for record yesterday from the Bellwill Cotton Mills, successor to the Wilmington Cotton Mills, to the Atlantic Trust and Banking Company, of this city, as trustee, to secure an issue of gold bonds by the first named company to the amount of $75,000. One hundred bonds will be issued, 50 in denominations of $1,000 each and 50 of $500 each, will run for ten years and bear interest from the 15th of September, 1909, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually.

The decision to issue bonds to the amount of $75,000 and to give a first mortgage on all the property of the company to secure the same was reached at a meeting of the stockholders held on the 6th inst. The mortgage covers the mills and all machinery therein, furniture and fixtures all dye houses and machinery connected therewith, out buildings, stables, barns, warehouses, wagons, carts, horses, mules and all buildings, tenant houses and structures of any kind situated on the property of the mill company and also the real estate on which the mill and buildings are situated. The bonds are subject to be called or redeemed at the option of the Bellwill Cotton Mills, either in part or as a whole, at any time within five years, at any interest paying period at the price of $1,100 each with accrued interest for $1,000 bonds and $550 for $500 bonds. The mill company agrees to keep the property insured for not less than $150,000.

The instrument is signed by Hon. John D. Bellamy as president and Mr. J. Walter Williamson as secretary of the Bellwill Cotton Mills and Mr. B. H. J. Ahrens as vice president and Mr. Milton Calder as cashier of the Atlantic Trust and Banking Company.

It will be recalled that mention was made several weeks ago that Messrs. Bellamy and Williamson had purchased the old Wilmington Cotton Mills, situated in the southern part of the city, which has been idle for more than a year, and that it was the purpose of the new owners to resume operations of the plant at an early date.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Two Presiding Judges Yesterday—Minor Cases Heard.

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was presided over alternately by Recorder J. J. Furlong and Substitute Recorder George Harriss, some cases being on the docket which for personal reasons the Recorder desired not to sit in judgment upon.

William Holmes, colored, before Recorder Furlong on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, arrested Tuesday night by Mounted Officers George and Hall, was found guilty and fined $25, or three months on the county roads. He will probably go to the roads. The Recorder also heard two or three other minor cases in which the defendants were charged with drunkenness or disorderly conduct.

Joe Drew, Sam Gause, James Bell and Fred Johnson, colored, employed by Furlong & Co., sanitary firm, charged with going to work 20 minutes before the time prescribed by the ordinance, were tried before Substitute Recorder Harriss. The offense was committed several days and the trial had been continued several times. Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., appeared for Mr. C. O. Knox, the prosecutor. The charge was not denied by the defendants, who claimed that they were mistaken as to the time. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

A case against Louis Moore, colored, charged with assault on Claude Cowens, colored, by striking him with a brick bat, appealed from Justice Bornemann's court, was also heard by Mr. Harriss. He held that the defendant was guilty and taxed him with costs. When the case came up for hearing before Justice Bornemann the mother of the defendant stated that her son was 15 years old, but during the trial the father stated that he was only 13. The justice taxed the defendant with the costs and the father appealed to the Recorder's court.

The Theatre

Everything new at the Crystal Palace today. The time rolls around the occasion for the semi-weekly change at this popular little vaudeville theatre and so an entirely new programme will go on commencing this afternoon. The new bill will be even better, it is claimed, than the one that closed last night and which furnished so much delight to big audiences. Miss Olga Retsoff, who is one of the prettiest and daintiest favorites ever at the Palace, will be heard in a new repertoire of bright songs, while Miss Olive Crane will be seen in something new, and her dances will be a feature. Ottie, blackface comedian, promises a new stunt that will be bright and clever, and the comedy musical team of Kohler and Adams will appear in a sketch that will cause howls of laughter and that will also delight the ear in the way of sweet music. The first performance of the new bill will commence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

At the Bijou Today.

"The Indian Runner's Romance," a thrilling episode in the Black Hills, is the title of the feature picture that will be shown at the Bijou today. The story deals with a period about the year 1867 when gold was discovered in the Black Hills. The film makers say of the picture: "The subject is a most beautiful one in scenic splendor and photographic excellence, with a succession of the most intensely thrilling incidents."

FOR TAFT COMMITTEES

Secretary J. A. McGeachy, of the Chamber of Commerce, announced yesterday that the Taft committees are welcome to hold their various meetings in arranging for the Taft celebration in November at that place. This is an excellent place for such gatherings and doubtless can be used to advantage by these committees on account of its splendid location and arrangement for executive and public meetings.

As the time for the Taft visit approaches the Chamber of Commerce will be used as headquarters by the committees and to transact other business in connection with the celebration. The first meeting at the Chamber will be that of the River and Harbor Decorating Committee tomorrow night. There will be several other committee meetings during the next few days.

Asks For Division of Property.

In the Superior court yesterday afternoon there was filed a petition for the sale under an order of court a lot on southwest corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, 66x165 feet in size, formerly owned by Lucy Davis, who died intestate in March 1886, and a division of the proceeds among the heirs at law. The action is entitled Fred Davis, et al., against Walter C. Boesch. The defendant is now in possession of the property and the petitioners admit that he owns a third interest in the same. Meares & Ruark appear as counsel of record for the petitioners.

IN INTEREST OF BAND

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in the Court House Last Night.

An enthusiastic meeting of some 25 or 30 citizens interested in the organization of a band for Wilmington was held in the Court House last night. A temporary organization was effected by the election of Alderman W. L. West chairman and Mr. H. G. Saunders secretary. A number spoke of the need of a band in Wilmington and declared that the prospects for a splendid organization at this time were very encouraging.

It was suggested that it would be best to enlist the support of Mayor Walter G. MacRae in the movement before taking any further action and a committee, composed of Dr. Russell Bellamy, Professor E. H. Bruckman, Messrs. B. D. Hamilton and H. G. Saunders, was named to call upon the city's chief executive and ask him to be present at the next meeting. This committee will also serve as the ways and means committee. It was stated that the prospective members of the band have ample time in which to prepare themselves for furnishing music on the occasion of President Taft's visit provided the organization is perfected within the next few days. It was also stated that as many as 60 musicians of the city could be secured as members of a band.

The plaintiff alleges that he was struck in the eye by a piece of wood from the part of machinery of the mill known as the "hog" and as a result it was necessary to remove the eye and that he was rendered unable for work for a period of five months. Ricaud & Empie appear for the plaintiff and Davis & Davis for the defendant company.

SYNOD OF CATAWBA MEETS

Colored Presbyterians From North Carolina and Parts of Virginia Gather Here for Annual Meeting—Session.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Catawba, colored, convened in Chesnut Street Presbyterian Church, this city, at 8 o'clock last night with nearly 100 delegates and visitors in attendance. The Synod embraces North Carolina and the southern portion of Virginia.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Bonner, pastor of the church, introduced Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, who delivered the address of welcome. He mentioned the cordial relations existing between the two races in this city and expressed a deep interest in the work of Chesnut Street church and the Synod. The response was by Rev. G. F. Dillard.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. H. L. McCrorey, president of Biddle University, Charlotte. Not the least feature of the meeting last night was the music which pleased a congregation that taxed the seating capacity of the church. There were present a number of members of the white Presbyterian churches of the city.

The officers of the Synod are: Moderator, Rev. W. J. Rankin, Aberdeen, N. C.; stated clerk, Rev. R. P. Wyche, D. D., and Profs. C. H. Shute and J. D. Martin temporary clerks. The Synod represents about 15,000 communicants and has within its bounds some of the largest and best schools for the education of the negro in the South, among which are Scotia Seminary, Concord, N. C.; Biddle University, Charlotte; Mary Potter, Oxford, and Albion Academy, Franklinton. In attendance are some of the leading preachers and teachers of the race, among whom are Dr. McCrorey, Dr. G. T. Dillard, Dr. J. A. Savage, Dr. G. C. Shaw, Profs. F. J. Anderson and C. H. Shute.

The Synod will continue in session until Sunday night, three sessions being held daily.

INTEREST INCREASING.

Mr. Webber Preaches Strong Sermon to Large Congregation.

Interest is increasing in the Mission being held at the Church of the Good Shepherd this week and at each service the congregation is larger than at the preceding one. Last night chairs had to be placed in the aisles to accommodate all who attended. The sermon of Archdeacon Webber was one of the most powerful and soul stirring of the series. He used as his text, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son," and his subject was "A Wonderful Love and Its Wonderful Results."

Mr. Webber spoke at some length of the fact that most people like instead of love; that they like their friends, their God, their church, etc., but do not love them. Often a person will let a single little act of a friend serve as the cause of severing the ties of friendship. The speaker also spoke of the many kinds of love, and pointed out the fact that God's love for His children is even greater than the love of the mother for her child. He said that love produces two things, namely, confidence and faith; seeks equality and exalts.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a service was held especially for children and there was a large number present. Mr. Webber spoke briefly on "The Promise and Its Fulfillment." As one of the many illustrations used he spoke of the bud as the promise and the fruit as the promise fulfilled. It was a beautiful and impressive service and the little folks followed the speaker very closely.

This morning at 7:30 o'clock a communion service of half an hour's length will be held and at 8 o'clock tonight Mr. Webber will preach.

COTTON STEAMER CLEARS

First From Wilmington This Season With Staple for Foreign Exports.

The first steamer with cotton from the port of Wilmington this season for foreign export cleared through the custom house yesterday and will sail today with 12,861 bales for Bremen, Germany. The vessel is the British steamer Putney Bridge, Captain Robertson, which arrived in port to receive a cargo of the staple the latter part of August.

The cargo is valued at $780,000. The Putney Bridge carries about an average cargo, but on account of the present price of the staple is valued at high figures. The vessel and cargo are by Alexander Sprunt & Son, who at present have two more steamers in port loading cotton, which will be ready to clear within a few days.

The Putney Bridge will clear three days ahead of the first steamer with cotton last year, which sailed for Bremen on the 18th. She will also carry over 2,000 bales more. The first steamer last season was the Fernfield and she carried a cargo of 9,601 bales, valued at $510,000. The staple at that time was selling for 9 1-16 cents for middling.

Dr. Bellamy Appointed Delegate.

Dr. Russell Bellamy, a well known and prominent local physician, has been appointed by Governor W. W. Kitchin as a delegate from North Carolina to the Corn Congress Carnivals, which will be held in Omaha, Nebraska, some time in the early Winter. Practically every State in the Union will have specimens of corn on exhibition at the carnival and there will be many visitors from all parts of the Union. Dr. Bellamy will very likely attend and will make a careful study of the relation of corn as the probable cause of certain diseases.

TAX ON CARNIVALS

Attorney General Bickett Holds That They Are Not Exempt.

There is considerable local interest in an opinion just rendered by Attorney General T. W. Bickett on the meaning of Section 30 of the Revenue Act relating to the exemption from taxation of exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of religious, charitable or educational objects. According to his construction street carnivals by paid companies do not come within the meaning of the section, although a portion of the proceeds are to go toward charitable institutions. He says that the statute does not contemplate exemption except where those giving and participating in the entertainment are to receive no pecuniary compensation and that if a carnival company is hired to give the entertainment then, primarily, it is for the benefit of the carnival company, and that it is a speculative question as to whether religion, charity or education will ever derive any benefit from the show. Heretofore a contrary opinion has prevailed and the carnival companies when showing under the auspices of some local organization have been exempted from taxation.

In making the ruling Attorney General Bickett takes occasion to cast a fling at the average carnival that is going about the country setting up under the auspices of fraternal orders and similar organizations. He says: "The kind of exhibition handed out to the public by the average carnival company is excruciatingly insipid, only virile when vicious—a sort of saw dust baby with hookworms in its toes." The ruling as to tax was at the request of State Treasurer Lacy.

HOWARD-GARRELL

Wedding of Much Interest Celebrated Here Yesterday Evening

Of much pleasurable interest to a large number of friends here and elsewhere is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Jennie M. Garrell and Mr. James P. Howard, which was celebrated at the home of the bride, No. 418 North Third street, at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, officiating. Conforming to the wishes of both bride and groom, the wedding was very quiet and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends.

Mr. Howard is one of the well known proprietors of the Bijou, on North Front street, and since coming to Wilmington several years ago has been prominent in theatrical and club circles. A number of his bachelor friends and others of the "profesh" who had not been taken into the confidences of Mr. Howard in his embarkation upon the matrimonial sea, had planned a unique reception for the bride and groom at the union station yesterday evening when they were expected to leave for a bridal tour, but the couple escaped the proverbial shower of rice and evidences of old shoes by boarding an automobile soon after the ceremony and leaving for Castle Haynes, whence they boarded the train for an extended trip North, returning from which they will be at home in this city. Two or three of Mr. Howard's more intimate friends became wise to the ruse precipitated in the Castle Haynes trip at the last moment and they followed to the suburban station in another and faster automobile, where the best wishes and other amenities were showered in spite of the reputed timidity of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Howard will receive the most cordial welcome from their friends upon their return.

MONROE BYRD DEAD

Well Known Colored Stevedore Passed Away Yesterday Evening.

Monroe Byrd, a well known colored contracting stevedore, passed away yesterday evening at 6:40 o'clock at his home, No. 506 South Seventh street, after an illness of two weeks or more following hemorrhages from the lungs. His death will be learned of with regret by many in Wilmington of both races, for he was well known and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. The deceased was 59 years of age and had lived in Wilmington practically all his life. He leaves of the immediate family only a daughter, who lives in Mebane, N. C., his wife having preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. The services of Monroe were frequently required by people along the wharf in the removal of heavy iron safes, machinery, etc., and every duty was performed reliably and faithfully. He was a leader among his fellows and had engaged at all times a regular force of stevedores and roustabouts under his direction. He will be missed in the community.

The funeral will be conducted with the honors of the colored Masonic fraternity at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the late residence.

Fire at Coast Line.

The city edition of the Star yesterday morning carried the story of the burning of the small building in the rear of the Coast Line shops at the Union station. The damage yesterday was estimated at $1,500, the building having been used for pipe fitters' supply and the storing of dressed lumber for coach repairs. The origin of the fire is unknown but it may have been started by a torch in the hands of one of the yardmen who was seen passing in that vicinity shortly before the fire was discovered.

TAFT ON DISFRANCHISEMENT

Both Parties Should Vote Down Amendment in Maryland.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 15.—President Taft has squarely and unequivocally placed himself on record in a letter to a local newspaper, as being opposed to suffrage restrictions which are manifestly intended to discriminate against the negro race. In answer to a letter asking his opinion concerning the franchise amendment to the Maryland, says:

"It is deliberately drawn to impose educational and other qualifications for the suffrage upon negroes and to exempt everybody else from such qualifications.

"This is gross injustice and is a violation of the spirit of the 15th amendment. It ought to be voted down by every one, whether Democrat or Republican, who is in favor of a square deal."

Baltimore, Sept. 15.—An act was passed by a Democratic Legislature last year providing for the submission to the voters at the election next November of an amendment to the constitution of the State which it is admitted by the leaders of the Democratic party will have the effect of disfranchising a large number of negro voters by providing for ownership of property valued at not less than $500 or the giving of correct answers to questions in an amended constitution.

The amendment contains the so-called "Grand Father Clause" which will keep off of the registration books the name of any negro who cannot comply with the property ownership or educational qualifications by providing that the applicant for registration shall be a person, or a male descentant of a person who was entitled to vote on January 1, 1869 or prior thereto, or a foreign-born citizens, who has been naturalized between that date of adoption of the amendment or the male descendant of such person.

The striking weavers at the Iron Works Cotton Mills, at Fall River, Mass., have accepted a 5 per cent. increase in wages and will return to work today. The weavers struck on Monday, demanding a 10 per cent. advance. About 1,000 weavers were involved in the movement and about 5,000 employes were thrown out of work by the closing of the mills.

HAPPY WOMEN

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
She finds relief and cure?

No reason why any Wilmington reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Miss Mattie Hodges, 609 South Fifth Street, Wilmington, N. C., Says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills I have felt better in every way and am pleased to add my testimonial to the many already given in favor of this remedy. I had kidney trouble for years. My back ached most of the time and when I stooped or lifted, sharp pains caught me across my loins. I had no strength or energy and was also bothered by a kidney weakness. I used only one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and they disposed of the backache, strengthened the kidneys and gave me renewed strength."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

SENSATION IN ASHEVILLE.

New Trial Asked for in Breese Case. Talked With Jurors.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 15.—Declaring that Deputy Marshal Robert Ramsey, an officer of the United States District Court, had had unlawful conversation with certain members of the jury before a verdict had been returned, Judge Charles A. Moore, of the defense in the recent trial of Messrs. Breese and Dickerson for alleged conspiracy to defraud the First National Bank of this city, created a sensation today when Judge Newman opened court to hear argument and motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial of the cases of the convicted bankers. The charges were made in affidavits from Jurors Norton and Garren, which were read in open court.

The affidavit of Norton alleged that after the case had gone to the jury Ramsey, while acting in his official capacity, had said in effect: "Rawls is as guilty as Breese and Dickerson; and they are both as guilty as hell."

Garren's affidavit stated that Ramsey had told him that if the jury didn't agree Judge Newman would keep it together for a week or more. The judge issued an order summoning every member of the Breese-Dickerson jury to Asheville at once where they will be questioned in open court. Ramsey denies the charges in toto.

The formal motions by the defense for a new trial and in arrest of judgment were denied by Judge Newman. The defense then offered a petition for a writ of error and the case goes to the United States circuit court of appeals.

GIRL MET WITH FOUL PLAY.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Canal Dover, O., Sept. 15.—Police are searching tonight for an unidentified girl who met Miss Florence Weber, 20 years old, whose body was found in the Tuscarauas river today shortly after she left the home of her uncle, Samuel Weber, Monday night in response to a mysterious telephone message. Relatives say the message came from a woman.

Miss Weber is supposed to have met her death Monday night. Until tonight relatives of the girl believed she left the vicinity of her uncle's home alone. Mrs. Catherine Keuerleber, however, informed the police that she saw the girls meet soon after Miss Weber left the house. Mrs. Kuerleiber, who is well acquainted here, says the girl Miss Weber met was a stranger. She gave the police a good description of her.

Miss Weber's parents insist that she met with foul play. Miss Weber was employed here as a telephone operator. She worked in Cleveland from June 1st to August 1st this year in a similar capacity.

TAFT EXONORATES BALLINGER

Charges Against Interior Department of The Government.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 15.—A statement in which President Taft announced his findings upon the charges against the conduct of the Interior Department of the Government, L. R. Glavis, chief of the field division of the general land office, in connection with the Cunningham coal land claims in Alaska, exonerating Secretary Ballinger of the Interior Department and observing that Mr. Glavis case embraced only "shreds o fsuspicion without substantial evidence" was made public here tonight.

The President grants Secretary Ballingers request for authority to dismiss Mr. Glavis from the service of the government "for unjustly impeaching the official integrity of his superior officer," and takes occasion to review the evidence in the so-called "water power trust" case and other cases to refute the charges that the Secretary of the Interior is out of sympathy with the policy of the administration in favor of the conservation of natural resources.

SUNDAY ON BOARD.

Order Issued by Secretary Winthrop Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 15.—"Free Sunday" for so many years the hope deferred of "Jack Tar", in the United States Navy, is about to become a reality. Acting Secretary Winthrop issued an order having this object in view today. Its purpose is to reduce the work aboard ship on the Sabbath to a minimum consistent with requirements of the service, to the end that that day may be generally observed as a day of rest.

Hereafter the commanding officers' inspection of ship and crew is not to be held on Sunday. Ship inspection is to be held on any other day most expedient, while the inspection of the crew will take place on Saturday before noon or as soon after the dinner hour as practicable.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Wilson, Sept. 14.—The Wilson market had big breaks today. Four hundred thousand pounds were on the floors of the fire warehouses.

—High Point, Sept. 14.—Mr. Patterson, a druggist of this city, has been arrested on the charge of selling cocaine. The case has been set for 9:30 tomorrow morning. The defendant will be represented by Col. J. C. L. Harris, of Raleigh; ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, of Greensboro, and Mr. Robbins.

—Concord, Sept. 14.—The Barringer mill at Rockwell, in Rowan county, established by Dr. Paul Barringer, of Mt. Pleasant, will begin operation tomorrow. The mill has 3,000 spindles installed ready for use and 2,000 more will be added later. The mill will make fine yarns and will employ about 50 hands.

—Hickory, Sept. 14.—In a few days work will begin on paving the streets of Hickory. Gilbert C. White, the engineer in charge, is expected to arrive this week from Durham, when the work will be started at once. The street improvement bonds, which were voted some time ago, have been sold to parties in Cincinnati for a handsome premium.

—Wadesboro Ansonian, Sept. 14.—Mr. J. P. Hill, of upper Burnsville, was a caller at the Ansonian office yesterday and, speaking of fish, says that many years ago 1,100 shad were caught at one haul at the point where Richardson creek empties into Rocky river. It is a real calamity that today you would hardly find a shad anywhere in that section.

—Wilson, Sept. 14.—Two convicts, John Bynum, from Greene county, and Frank Smith, a Raleigh negro, escaped from the road camp yesterday. They were sent to the spring for water and did not return. After making their escape they broke into a house and stole some clothing, a gun, some shells and a knife.

—Wadesboro Ansonian: Mr. J. B. Henry has harvested his field of fine corn and from a plot nearly 1 1-2 acres he gathered 103 bushels. A fine acre was measured by a committee and the corn also measured for the prize to be offered. Mr. Henry says that is the way to make corn and is satisfied that his will cost him not more than 30 cents per bushel.

—Salisbury Post: Mr. Eccles Huff, who left Salisbury three months ago to try his fortune in Oklahoma, the praises of which have been sung loud and long in the ears of North Carolinians for the past year, returned last night and will resume his position with his father, Mr. W. H. Huff, in the latter's grocery. Oklahoma is a good State, but North Carolina is better, says Mr. Huff.

—Washington, N. C., Sept. 14.—A special election was held in the different wards of this city today for the purpose of voting on a $25,000 bond issue, the money derived therefrom, if passed, to be expended on street improvements for this city. In sipte of some oposition the measure was passed with a majority of 42 of the registered vote of the city. The vote was rather light, there being only 332 ovtes cast.

—Concord Tribune: The Southern is once more down to serious business in double-tracking its line. One force of hands is at work at China Grove and another a few miles below at Kanapolis. These two crews of workmen are busy throwing dirt and working south. The Southern, after a long lay-off, is once more at serious work laying a double track through this section of the route. All this would indicate that at an early date the road will have a double track through Piedmont Carolina, where the industrial advancement is so marked and steady.

—Hickory, Sept. 14.—A movement is on foot to organize a company to build another large cotton mill in Hickory. J. A. Martin, who has large mill interests in Newton and in Cherryville, is at the head of this movement, and is meeting with much success in interesting outside capitalists. It is proposed to erect this mill in the northern part of the town. When this is done, Hickory will be encircled with cotton mills. Just outside the city limits on the south is the Brookford mill; to the west is the Ivey cotton mill, which has recently doubled its capacity; on the east the new A. A. Shuford mill is going up, and on the north will be erected the new mill which is being projected.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Work on the Norfolk & Southern Railway goes straight ahead and soon there will be completed the five mile railroad bridge over the Albemarle and also the Pinetown, Bishop's Cross "cut off" from Belhaven to Washington, N. C. In the city yesterday was Mr. Harry K. Walcott, one of the receivers of the Norfolk & Southern, and Mr. E. T. Lamb, the general manager of the road. These gentlemen had been on a tour of inspection of the property and after spending part of the day here left in the afternoon for Edenton. Messrs. Walcott and Lamb said that great progress had been made in the construction of the bridge over the Albemarle and that by the first of December this would be complete from Edenton to Mackey's Ferry. The distance is about five miles, or approximately 28,000 feet. Besides this they stated that by the middle of October the Pinetown, Bishop's Cross "cut off" from Belhaven to Washington, N. C., would be in operation, work on this now nearing completion.

Attractive Variable Route—Excursion Fares
ATLANTIC COAST LINE.

The Atlantic Coast Line has issued a folder announcing attractive excursion fares to a number of Eastern resorts, including Niagara Falls, Montreal and Quebec, going and returning by the Atlantic Coast Line as far as Washington, but by widely variable routes north of that city, that is, a passenger can select almost any route from Washington to destination and return by almost any other regular route.

These rates open up a new method of traveling and will no doubt be largely patronized, as New York, Boston and nearly all the Eastern resorts can be reached by one of these "Variable Routes," or what may be more properly termed "Circular Tour," tickets especially as liberal stop-over privileges will be allowed.

One of the folders giving the routes in detail with rates and other information may be obtained by calling on or addressing the undersigned.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 15.—The cotton market was decidedly more active and firmer today on aggressive bull support, bullish private crop reports and encouraging trade advices. The close was steady at a net advance of 15 to 20 points.

The opening was firm at an advance of 6 to 13 points in response to better cables than expected, the continued large spot sales at Liverpool covering, and spot house buying. December contracts sold at 12.39 on the call, 30 points above the low level of Monday morning and this rally being considered sufficient for the time being by scalping traders brought out a good deal of selling not only for short account, but in the way of realizing by recent buyers. Prices reacted to about the closing level of the previous day under this pressure but toward midday the market was rallied sharply by the heavy buying of a prominent New Orleans operator now in this city. Prices responded quickly to the aggressive demand and it was estimated that the purchase by this operator alone aggregated fully 50,000 bales, which according to latest gossip was really purchased for the account of a large local commission house. The aggressiveness of the bulls started general covering which sent December contracts up to 12.51, or 22 net higher. Rumors that a prominent Southern authority estimated the crop at less than 10,000,000 bales, expectations of a very bullish condition report before the end of the week and reports that the Fall River labor troubles had been settled, were factors on the advance in connection with reports of firm interior spot holders. The market closed within 2 or 3 points of the top. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today 28,000 bales against 23,897 last week and 31,961 last year; for the week 180,000 bales against 151,822 last week and 213,882 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 2,143 bales against 4,028 last year, and at Houston 5,929 bales against 11,538 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 20 ponits higher. Middling uplands 12.70; middling gulf 12.95; no sales. Futures opened firm and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 15.—There was a very good demand for Southern drills and sheetings in the primary cotton goods market today and buyers are paying full asking prices without hesitation. Spot print cloths were perhaps fractionally higher as a result of the upward trend in cotton but transactions were of rather slender proportions. There was a steady call from the retailers for staple cotton yarns and more was done in silks and worsted dress goods by these merchants also.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 15.—The speculation in stocks today gave greater evidence of vitality and of naturalness than for a long time past. Operations were not confined so entirely to a handful of stocks or even as has been the case often to the three stocks Union Pacific, Reading and United States Steel. News to account for these movements was not forthcoming always and conjecture was obliged to fall back on some general explanation which would apply either to business prospects or to opportunity for speculation or both. If the former class was the interpretation placed by the financial community upon President Taft's endorsement in his Boston speech of the plan for the establishment of a central bank of issue, as a means of solving the currency problem which had a good effect on sentiment in the financial district. So had the cheerful belief expressed that we are "on the eve of another great business expansion and eve of prosperity." Industrious use was made also of the rumors of an approachment between the two great banking groups usually disgnated as the Standard Oil and Morgan groups.

Of material influence on the day's market was the report from Pittsburg of the visit to the steel works there of a French banker, who it was assumed was securing information to pave the way to listing United States Steel on the Paris bourse. It was the most influential factor in carrying United States Steel to its new record level on enormous dealings.

The further tighening of the money market had not the slightest effect in checking the speculation. Most of the day's call loans were made at 3 per cent.

Bonds were strong. Total sales, par value, were $4,050,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 1,050,000 shares.

BASE BALL

National League.

Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—Spade gave bases on balls to the first three Pittsburg players that faced him today and this was followed by singles by Wagner, Abstein and Wilson. The result was four runs for Pittsburg in the opening inning, a lead Cincinnati was never able to overcome. Spade retired and Rowan who took his place, allowed the visitors to accummulate three more runs mainly by hitting. Mitchell hit the ball to the rightfield bleachers for a home run in the ninth inning.

American Championship.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—There is great public interest in the series of baseball games beginning tomorrow in this city between the Detroit and Philadelphia American teams. Both teams are hot contenders for the league leadership, only a few points separating them and it is generally conceded that the four games beginning tomorrow will settle the championship.

This interest has been heightened by the discussion of an incident of the recent series in Detroit between the same teams when Baker, third baseman of the Philadelphia club, was spiked on the arm by "Ty" Cobb as the latter slid into third. Much has been published about the accident, Cobb vigorously denying any intention to injure Baker and the friends of the latter claiming that Cobb desired to maim Baker and thus put a strong rival player out of the game.

Today Director of Public Safety Henry Clay, who is an old-time amateur player, and a lover of the game, announced that he has ordered a sufficient detail of police headed by the most capable lieutenant and sergeants to preserve order at the grounds while the Detroits are playing here.

Boston, Sept. 15.—On their last appearance this season the Washingtons defeated Boston today 7 to 4 in a poorly played game. All three pitchers were hit hard, but gray was the most effective in tight place.

South Atlantic Championship.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 15.—A game featured by brilliant playing on both sides occurred here today, Augusta winning 3 to 0. Griffin was a puzzle to Chattanooga at all stages, giving up only five hits and striking out eight. Augusta made all three of her runs in the fifth inning when a hit, two errors and another hit caused all the tallies Viola's and Cole's brilliant fielding and hard hitting and Rickert's fielding and hitting were features. A large crowd witnesses the contest.

Looks Ugly at Augusta.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 15.—A telephone message received by the Times tonight from Johnny Dobbs, manager of the Chattanooga baseball team, says that the members of his team were poisoned today, while playing in Augusta. All the men who drank from a bucket of water are ill. Two men who did not drink the water escaped. Meek, the star catcher, is confined to his bed with a doctor in attendance. It is not known how the poison got into the water or what was the nature of it.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 15.—The statement made tonight by members of the Chattanooga team that they had been drugged or poisoned at the ball park this afternoon is branded by both Managed Castro and Secretary Farr, of the local club, as false. They both claim that it is another statement of Manager Dobbs, of Chattanooga, to try to win the pennant without playing for it.

The ball game was completed at about 6 o'clock and there was no talk of anyone of the team being ill until after 8 o'clock tonight, which was two hours afterward. The only man who is said to be ill, is Catcher Meeks, who is Manager Dobb's right hand bower.

J. R. Curtis, a Chattanooga baseball writer, who is here with the team, stated tonight that he drank of the water and had felt no ill-effects. He said that other members of the Chattanooga team had felt no bad effects.

Manager Castro said: "It is all false. We have just outplayed those fellows from Chattanooga and they are trying every possible way to get public favor."

Secretary Farr said: Chattanooga knows that we will win if the games are played, and they are using every effort possible to prevent the playing of the games. We don't have to drug 'em."

J. B. Winders, of Warsaw, is directed by Judge Connor, of the United States court to appear October 4th and show cause why he should not be enjoined from interfering with the assets of the estate of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad Co., now in the hands of the court through receiver, the threatened interference being in the matter of certain timber rights in Duplin county.

President Leonard Tufts of the Capitals Highway Association, is making an inspection trip over the proposed route in this State and spent the day in Raleigh. He declares the general outlook for the highway good, although the development in Virginia, he thinks, is not as rapid as it should be. He says that State has decidedly awakened to the importance of good roads and that he feels confident that the next year will show such improvement in that State as will put "The Mother of Presidents" clearly and permanently among the most progressive States of the country in road building. Mr. Tufts says Moore county has practically completed her chain of good roads for the Capitals Highway, and Lee county is raising private subscriptions to perfect that section of the highway. The Chatham county section he found in a very discouraging condition. However, this is only eight miles. In Wake, he says, he found fine work, all the heavy part, in fact, completed with intelligent work being pushed to connect up the sections and keep the whole in improved condition.

THE AMERICAN BANKERS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Sept.15.—Two great divisions of banking activity, the trust company and the clearing house, occupied the attention of the delegates to the convention of the American Bankers' Association today. Separate meetings of each section were held.

Before the trust company section the principal address was by Daniel S. Remsen, of the New York bar, author of a treatise on the law of decedent estates, who spoke on the "Post Mortem Administration of Wealth."

The safety of the estate, he declared, was the first consideration and for that reason argued that the integrity and business ability of an executor whether personal or a trust company, was of the greatest importance.

Strong endorsement of gold as the only safe reserve fund for a bank was the burder of the annual address of E. C. McDougal, president of the clearing house section.

The new president of the section, Sol Wexler, of the Whitney Central National Bank of New Orleans urged that the members consider in the coming year the idea of adopting a uniform rate of charges for all items of business transacted by one bank for another bank and also suggested that action be planned looking to the establishment of uniformity in settling daily clearances.

During the day it was whispered among the delegates that the central bank idea suggested in the annual address of Charles Reynolds was disapproved by many in the convention.

President Jackson of trust company section said in his annual address that in the 13 years of the sections existence the wisdom of its existence had been amply justified. He said it had a membership of nearly 1,000 companies representing resources of four billion dollars.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 15.—The cotton exporting season at Savannah opened with a rush today.
